An HYMN

To be Sung by the Charity Children of St. James Clerkenwell, at St. Brides-Church in Fleet-ſtreet, on Sunday, November 11, 1711. immediately after Morning Sermon, which is to be Preached by the Right Reverend Father in God, William Lord Biſhop of Lincoln.

I.

TO Jacob God Commandment gave,
How Iſrael ſhould live:
Willing our Fathers ſhould the ſame
Unto their Children give.

II.

That Generations yet to come
Should to their unborn Heirs,
Religiouſly tranſmit the ſame,
And they again to theirs.

III.

That they might have the better hope
In God that is above;
And not forget to keep his Laws,
And his Precepts in Love.

IV.

Theſe Bleſſings we, O Lord, enjoy,
By th' Heav'nly Charity
Of Pious Chriſtians, who have taught
Us to acknowledge Thee.

V.

Increaſe their Number and their Store,
And ever be their Guide;
And Recompenſe their Love (we pray)
Who for the Poor provide.

VI.

When thou ſhalt come to judge the World,
Their wondrous Love proclaim;
Saying, Come ye Bleſt, enter my Reſt,
And always there Remain. Hallelujah.

God is not Unrighteous that he will forget your Works and Labour that proceedeth of Love, Heb. 6. 10. Therefore to do good and to diſtribute forget not, for with ſuch Sacrifices God is well-pleaſed, Heb. 13. 16.
